LLUÍS BARBA

TRAVEL TO PAST

Pere Granados
Alcalde de Salou

És un honor per al Centre d'art de Torre Vella, acollir una exposició d'un artista multidisciplinari com és el cas de Lluís Barba, que treballa i desenvolupa amb gran talent utilitzant diverses disciplines com la pintura, la fotografia, l'escultura o el videoart.

És interessant saber que l'obra de Barba ha viatjat per EE.UU, Europa, Amèrica Llatina, Canadà, Japó etc., i que el seu treball artístic forma part de diverses col·leccions públiques i museus com el MACBA o el Marugame Hirai Museum: Art Espanyol Contemporani al Japó, entre d'altres; la seva obra ha estat molt ben acollida i valorada en diferents exposicions a Londres, Nova York, Miami, Los Angeles, Toronto, Hong Kong, Buenos Aires, el Caire...

Barba ha desenvolupat una obra universal perquè ha sabut reinterpretar i reestimar somnis del passat de mestres clàssics com El Bosco, Magritte o Brueghel..., incorporant conceptualment i formalment una visió actual amb clares referències crítiques i sarcàstiques, provocadores de la nostra societat i de temes socials més controvertits: desigualtats, desequilibris, conflictes i drames humans com l'opulència o la pobresa.

En definitiva, una obra commovedora i subtil que mitjançant el llenguatge plàstic -combinació del visual i el verbal-, intenta afavorir el criteri i remoure la consciència cap a determinats fenòmens de la nostra societat, que fan involucionar el futur de l'ésser humà.

It is an honor for the Art Center of Torre Vella, to host an exhibition of a multidisciplinary artist such as Lluís Barba, who works and develops with great talent using various disciplines such as painting, photography, sculpture or video art.

It is interesting to know that Barba's work has traveled through the USA, Europe, Latin America, Canada, Japan, etc., and that his artistic work is part of various public collections and museums such as the MACBA or the Marugame Hirai Museum: Spanish Art Contemporaneous, Kawaga in Japan, among others; and his work has been very well received and valued in different exhibitions in London, New York, Miami, Los Angeles, Toronto, Hong Kong, Buenos Aires, Cairo ...

Barba has developed a universal work that has been able to reinterpret and restimulate dreams from the past of classical masters such as Bosch, Magritte or Brueghel, conceptually and formally incorporating a current vision with clear critical and sarcastic references, provocative of our society and more controversial social issues: inequalities, imbalances, conflicts and human dramas such as opulence or poverty.

In short, a poignant and subtle work that through language plastic -combination of the visual and the verbal-, tries to favor the criterion and remove the conscience towards certain phenomena of our society, which make involute the future of the human being.

L'apropiacionisme sarcàstic

Fernando Castro Flórez

L'obra de Lluís Barba és una mena de comèdia humana, a la manera de la de Balzac, fundada en l'observació minuciosa de la realitat i sotmesa a una crua posada al nu. Hi ha alguna cosa còmica en l'experiència moderna com a tal, una comèdia demoníaca, no divina, precisament en la mesura que l'experiència moderna està caracteritzada per situacions mecanitzades i sense significat, per processos en els quals és evident la manca de relació.

Com apunta Barba, la pobresa extrema pot juxtaposar desvergonyidament a la frivolitat sense agafadors. "Abordo -diu aquest artista- el per què dels conflictes més arrelats en la nostra societat, la alienació, l'aïllament, la globalització, el mestissatge, el consum massiu i la pèrdua d'identitat, definida a través del codi de barres en forma de tatuatge."

El sorollós imaginari visual de Lluís Barba té una mica de Judici final; es tracta d'una impressionant sàtira.

Les obres de Barba no se situen merament en el deixant del teatre de l'absurd o dels rituals paradoxals d'Antonin Artaud, no es tracta tant de buscar un "món paral·lel al real" sinó de llançar-nos cruament a la precarietat del present.

El apropiacionisme sarcàstic no (re)planteja el retorn postmodern, amb tonalitat irònica, al passat, ni adopta l'estratègia pseudoprovocadora d'instal·lar-se ni en el kitsch ni en la retromania, deixant de banda aquesta combinació indigesta de cursileria i nostàlgia que tants adeptes tindria en els anys 80 i que desafortunadament ha tornat a aflorar de manera anacrònica en la nostra època indignada.

Construeixo composicions amb estereotips que van des de militars uniformats amb flors empuyant gelats, amb la finalitat de desmitificar la imatge associada a la agressivitat, fins herois de ficció com Superman o Spiderman, que per a mi són els mites que estan presents en la nostra societat en forma de Messi, Kate Moss, Madonna, Nadal, mentre ens tinguin entretinguts serem més manipulables.

Apropiacionismo sarcástico

Fernando Castro Flórez

La obra de Lluís Barba es una suerte de comedia humana, a la manera de la de Balzac, fundada en la observación minuciosa de la realidad y sometida a una cruda puesta al desnudo. Hay algo cómico en la experiencia moderna como tal, una comedia demoníaca, no divina, precisamente en la medida en que la experiencia moderna está caracterizada por situaciones mecanizadas y sin significado, por procesos en los que es evidente la falta de relación.

Como apunta Barba, la pobreza extrema puede juxtaponerse desvergonzadamente a la frivolidad sin asideros. "Abordo -dice este artista- el porqué de los conflictos más arraigados en nuestra sociedad, alienación, aislamiento, globalización, mestizaje, consumo masivo y pérdida de identidad, definida a través del código de barras en forma de tatuaje."

El ruidoso imaginario visual de Lluís Barba tiene algo de Juicio final; se trata de una impresionante sátira.

Las obras de Barba no se sitúan meramente en la estela del teatro del absurdo o de los rituales paradójicos de Antonin Artaud, no se trata tanto de buscar un "mundo paralelo al real" sino de arrojarnos crudamente a la precariedad del presente.

El apropiacionismo sarcástico no (re)plantea el retorno postmoderno, con tonalidad irónica, al pasado, ni adopta la estrategia pseudoprovocadora de instalarse ni en el kitsch ni en la retromanía, dejando de lado esa combinación indigesta de cursilería y nostalgia que tantos adeptos tendría en los años 80 y que desafortunadamente ha vuelto a aflorar de modo anacrónico en nuestra época indignada.

Construyo composiciones con estereotipos que van desde militares uniformados con flores empuñando helados, con la finalidad de desmitificar la imagen asociada a la agresividad, hasta héroes de ficción como Superman o Spiderman, que para mi son los mitos que están presentes en nuestra sociedad en forma de Messi, Kate Moss, Madonna, Nadal, mientras nos tengan entretenidos seremos más manipulables.

Sarcastic appropriationism

Fernando Castro Flórez

The work of Lluís Barba is a kind of Comédie humaine in the manner of Balzac, based on detailed observation of reality and subjected to a harsh stripping down. There is something comic about the modern experience as such; a demonic, not divine, comedy, precisely as the modern experience is characterised by meaningless, mechanised situations, by processes in which a lack of social interaction is evident.

As Barba points out, unashamed frivolity sits side by side with extreme poverty. "I deal with" says the artist, "the reasons for the deepest conflicts in our society, alienation, isolation, globalization, cross contamination, mass consumption, and the loss of identity which can be defined by a tattoo of a barcode." The riotous imaginary of Lluís Barba has something of The Last Judgement about it. It is an aweinspiring satire in which.

The work of Lluís Barba does not sit easily with the theatre of the absurd or the paradoxical rituals of Antonin Artaud, nor should we look for a "world parallel to the real", but immerse ourselves straight into the instability of the present.

Sarcastic appropriationism does not (re)raise the postmodern return, in an ironic key, to the past, nor does it adopt the pseudo-provocative strategy of taking refuge in kitsch or retro mania, quite apart from the indigestible combination of the twee and nostalgia that so many adherents followed in the 1980's and which has unfortunately and anachronistically reflowered in our indignant age.

I construct my compositions with stereotypes that range from soldiers dressed in floral uniforms, holding ice-creams, in order to demystify their aggressive image, to comic heroes like Superman or Spiderman, which for me are myths present in our society in the form of Messi, Kate Moss, Madonna or Nadal. While they are keeping us busy we are more easily manipulated.
